Quite obviously, if the gas companies now operating in Alberta are not already one and the same concern, they soon will be. And if any con-traction is a superation of the companies of the withdrawn by order of the Commission and rati-fied by resolution of the Legislature. If a com-pany is entitled to collect the same rates ever-where then it is planily in the interests of the ga-companies of the province to combine themselves into one company, and thus acquire the right to collect everywhere the highest rate that is now collectable anywhere.
